Did you know? eBay selected Community Forklift (and our CEO Nancy J. Meyer) from among 2,400 small businesses as a semi-finalist for the eBay Shine Awards. We're in the top 15 nationwide, and now, we need your help...

VOTE NOW

Voting ends this Friday, July 14th - so it's our last chance to win this thing!

If we get enough votes, we can win up to $10,000 for our nonprofit, a video and photo shoot, and a makeover of our eBay site to get our salvaged goods to a broader audience.

Proceeds from our online stores fund a substantial portion of our nonprofit's work. Winning this contest will mean we can do more good here in the DC metro region! We can keep more usable stuff out of landfills, offer more green jobs, and provide more free materials to community groups, seniors, vets, and neighbors in need.

Please ask your friends to vote too!

It's National Tape Measure Day

So we're giving 'em away!

In honor of the holiday this Friday, July 14, we'll be giving away free tape measures all weekend.

If you come in on Friday, just cast your eBay vote at our front desk, to receive a tape measure AND a $5 coupon.

If you come in on Saturday July 15th or Sunday July 16th, you'll receive a free tape measure with any purchase of $5 or more (while supplies last).

Pick up a new skill

at our free workshops

Did you know we offer free public workshops throughout the year? We explore home repair on a budget, reuse and upcycling, and green living. Presenters receive a $75 gift certificate - so please let us know if you have an idea for a topic!
